

Artist's Blessing

By J. Scott McElroy (JScottMcElroy.com)

You are blessed in the Name of Jesus, to take back the artistic and creative territory the enemy has stolen and that we (the Church) have given over to him.

You are blessed to live to the fullest degree of your true self for the purposes that God designed and planned for you before you were born.

You are blessed to bring light into the darkness!

You were born for this time and this place, for this generation to contribute the full expression of your unique presence to a magnificent collaboration with God!

You are needed NOW.

He cannot wait to work WITH you!

Be not anxious, be not frightened. Don't be lazy, don't be stagnant. God wants to make you fully alive in Him.

Be commissioned to be fully you, submitted fully to the Father, to take your place in the destiny and story of creation and creativity.

Be set free from fear, from performance orientation, from faulty thinking, from pride, from procrastination, from idols of talent, from anxiety, from hopelessness.

You are released to the freedom and joy---your true life—of collaboration with your

God!
